One morning, on her way to school, Nancy saw a blind man who was trying to cross the road. Nancy realized that this was a difficult task for a man who could not see. The blind man was not so sure about crossing the road. He was afraid of getting hit by a car. He kept trapping his stick on the road, but he didn't have the courage to walk forward.

Nancy held his hand and helped him cross the road. The blind man thanked her and she felt very happy to have helped the man. Nancy's teacher was watching this situation from far away. He was proud of Nancy for being helpful to a stranger. When Nancy reached her class, the teacher gave her a bar of chocolate as a reward for her good deed. All her teachers and classmates were proud of her.

9. A bad experience

Life is full of good and bad experiences. I am going to tell you about a bad experience I had before. One day, it was raining heavily while I was going out from school. It was very wet, so I slipped and fell on the ground. My friends laughed at me and I was so embarrassed. My clothes became muddy and dirty. I was so sad and angry with my friends, so I left them and didn't go on the bus. I walked home alone. But when I went back home, my mother told me to be more careful when it rains. It is ok life is full of happy and sad events.
